ABOUT THE CONTEST

HONORING THE BEST IN COMMUNICATIONS

Eventiada IPRA Golden World Awards is the largest communications award in Eastern Europe and the regional partner of IPRA Golden World Awards (GWA). In 2018 participants from Azerbaijan, Armenia, Belarus, Croatia, Estonia, Hungary, Kazakhstan, Latvia, Poland, Russia, Serbia and Tajikistan submitted their works.

IPRA Golden World Awards (GWA) was established in 1990 by the International Public Relations Association (IPRA), one of the oldest industry associations, that has been setting up standards for public relations since 1955. The award recognizes excellence in communications worldwide.

IPRA GWA GLOBAL JURY

Eventiada IPRA Golden World Awards accepts applications either in English or Russian. It features international IPRA GWA jury, which includes IPRA global board members presided over by Svetlana Stavreva, President of the International Public Relations Association (IPRA).

It is a unique opportunity to present your work to international jury, which judges not only for Eventiada IPRA Golden World Awards, but also for the main global IPRA Golden World Awards. This instrument makes the award really exciting and transparent.
